RIN 1215-AB39

Affirmative Action and Nondiscrimination Obligations of Government Contractors, Executive Order 11246, as amended; Exemption for Religious Entities

AGENCY: Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, Employment Standards Administration, Labor.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) is amending the regulations implementing Executive Order 11246, as amended, to incorporate the exemption for religious entities prescribed by Executive Order 13279. Executive Order 11246, as amended, prohibits Government contractors and subcontractors, and federally assisted construction contractors and subcontractors from discriminating in employment, and requires these contractors to take affirmative action to ensure that employees and applicants are treated without regard to race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Section 4 of Executive Order 13279 amends Section 204 of Executive Order 11246, as amended, to exempt religious corporations, associations, educational institutions and societies from certain nondiscrimination requirements.

EFFECTIVE DATES: These regulations are effective October 30, 2003.

The alternative formats available are large print, electronic file on computer disk, and audiotape. The rule also is available on the Internet at <http://www.dol.gov/dol/esa>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

Executive Order 11246, as amended, prohibits employment discrimination and establishes affirmative action requirements for nonexempt Government contractors and subcontractors, and federally assisted construction contractors and subcontractors. Section 202 of Executive Order 11246, as amended, requires that every non-exempt contract and subcontract include an equal opportunity clause, which specifies the nondiscrimination and affirmative action obligations each contractor or subcontractor assumes as a condition of its Government contract or subcontract. Each non-exempt contractor and subcontractor agrees, as a condition of its Government contract, not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin and to take affirmative action to ensure that applicants are employed, and employees are treated during employment, without regard to their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

On December 12, 2002, President George W. Bush issued Executive Order 13279, "Equal Protection of the Laws for Faith-Based and Community Organizations," reprinted at 67 FR 77141 (December 16, 2002). Section 4 of Executive Order 13279 amends Section 204 of Executive Order 11246, as amended, by adding an exemption for religious corporations, associations, educational institutions and societies. The amendment to Section 204 of Executive Order 11246, as amended, in pertinent part, reads:

(c) Section 202 of this Order shall not apply to a Government contractor or subcontractor that is a religious corporation, association, educational institution, or society, with respect to the employment of individuals of a particular religion to perform work connected with the carrying on by such corporation, association, educational institution, or society of its activities. Such contractors and subcontractors are not exempted or excused from complying with the other requirements contained in this Order.

The exemption for religious entities added to Executive Order 11246, as amended, is modeled on the exemption for religious institutions and organizations under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Section 702 of the Civil Rights Act provides that:

This subchapter shall not apply to * * * a religious corporation, association, educational institution, or society with respect to the employment of individuals of a particular religion to perform work connected with the carrying on by such corporation, association, educational institution, or society of its activities. 42 U.S.C. 2000e-1(a).

Revised Section*Section 60-1.5 Exemptions*

Today's final rule amends the regulation at 41 CFR 60-1.5(a) by adding a new paragraph (5) that sets forth the text of the amendment to Section 204 of Executive Order 11246, as amended, which provides the exemption for religious corporations, associations, educational institutions and societies. In the final rule, the text of the amendment to Section 204 has been modified slightly; for purposes of clarity "Executive Order 11246, as amended" has been substituted for "this Order." The existing paragraphs (5) and (6) in § 60-1.5(a) have been redesignated as paragraphs (6) and (7) respectively, in the final rule.

Regulatory Procedures*Publication in Final*

The Department of Labor has determined that this rulemaking need not be published as a proposed rule, as generally required by the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), 5 U.S.C. 553. Rulemaking is not required to implement the new exemption for religious entities. The exemption for religious corporations, associations, educational institutions, and societies was effected by the President's amendment to Section 204 of Executive Order 11246, as amended, which was published in the Federal Register. This rule simply incorporates the amendment to Section 204 in the regulation at 41 CFR 60-1.5(a) so as to provide additional notice of this change in coverage under Executive Order 11246, as amended. The amendment to the rule directly tracks the President's amendment to that Order, and the Department of Labor may not, in response to public comment, change or decline to implement this amendment. Consequently, there is good cause for finding that the notice and public comment procedure is unnecessary and contrary to the public interest, pursuant to Section 553(b)(B) of the APA.

Executive Order 12866

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has reviewed this rule under Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review. OMB has determined that this rule is a "significant regulatory action" as defined in section 3(f) of the Order. However, this rule is not an economically significant regulatory action under the Order, and therefore, no regulatory impact analysis is has been prepared.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required for the rule under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B), the requirements of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, pertaining to regulatory flexibility analysis, do not apply to this rule. In any event, the rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small business entities.

Unfunded Mandates Reform

For purposes of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995, as well as Executive Order 12875, this rule does not include any Federal mandate that may result in increased expenditures by State, local, and tribal governments, or by the private sector.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply because this rule does not contain any information collection requirements that require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget.

Executive Order 13132 (Federalism)

This final rule has been reviewed in accordance with Executive Order 13132 regarding Federalism. This rule will not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, the requirements of Section 6 of Executive Order 13132 do not apply to this rule.

Congressional Review Act

This final rule is not a major rule for purposes of the Congressional Review Act.
